

Summer Non-Fiction Book Report Form
For students entering 9th-12th grade

Fill out one form for each Non-Fiction Summer Reading book.
Fill out the form as you read the book. Include details from the story.
Answer all questions with complete sentences.
These forms will be used in class for writing and discussion assignments.
Answers must be written in complete sentences. Use additional paper (8.5 X 11) if necessary.

Student Name: _____

1. Book and Author

2. When: Describe the era that this non-fiction book covers. Place this book in the time frame of history. What other world events were occurring at the time? How did these events affect the focus of this non-fiction book?

4. Who were the important people covered in this non-fiction book? List 3 characters that were vital and describe their significant attributes.

5. What were the main events addressed in this book? How did these main events change the world in which they occurred? Consider economics, aesthetics, politics, family, philosophy, and theology. Address at least 3 main events.

7. Where did the main events take place? Discuss affects these events had on surrounding territories, countries, and continents.

8. Why did the events or action take place? Determine the opposing forces at work, worldview controversies and global changes igniting these events.

9. Describe four important discoveries, inventions or advancements highlighted in this book. How did each of these alter or improve the existing way of life?
